11 Plaintiff,
12 v.
13 ANTHONY OSHINSKI,
14 Defendant.

Case No. 2:14-cr-00284-GMN-DJA

STIPULATION TO CONTINUE HEARING REGARDING
REVOCATION OF SUPERVISED
RELEASE (Fourth Request)

16 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between, Brett Ruff,
17 Assistant United States Attorney, representing the United States of America, and Robert
18 O'Brien, Assistant Federal Public Defender, representing Anthony Oshinski, that the 19 revocation hearing in the above-captioned case, which is currently scheduled for September
20 30, 2020 at 10:00 a.m., be continued by at least 45 days and reset to a time and date
21 acceptable to the Court.
22

- 23 1. After initially being detained for alleged violations of his supervised release,
24 Anthony Oshinksi was released at his April 27, 2020 detention hearing with 25 instructions to immediately attend mental health counseling and to report to the 26 Probation Office for drug testing. Since his release, Mr. Oshinski has been

1 compliant with most conditions of his supervised release, the requests of his
2 Probation Officer, and participating in mental health counseling.

- 3 2. Although Mr. Oshinski has submitted to drug tests requested by the Probation
4 Office, it is the position of the Probation Office and the government that Mr.
5 Oshinski has missed several scheduled drug tests.
- 6 3. Mr. Oshinski and his Probation Officer have been working on modifications of 7 his drug testing schedule in hopes that the modifications will make it easier for 8 Mr. Oshinski to complete all scheduled drug tests.
- 9 4. The parties have agreed to a continuance of at least 45 days to allow Mr.
10 Oshinski to demonstrate that he substantially can comply with his supervised
11 release conditions and his Probation Officer's instructions, including the 12 requirement that he submit to periodic drug testing. The parties believe this 13 constitutes good cause to continue the hearing.
- 14 5. The parties respectfully request that the Court continue the revocation hearing
15 to a time and date acceptable to the Court at least 45 days after September 30, 16 2020.
- 17 6. This is the fourth stipulation to continue Mr. Oshinski's revocation hearing.

19 DATED this 23rd day of September, 2020.
